

HOLLAND MUSEUM

presents

THE VAN RAALTE FARM

CIVIL WAR MUSTER

THE BATTLE OF UTOY CREEK

JUNE 26&27, 2010

SCHEDULE

| SATURDAY, JUNE 26Van Raalte Farm |  | SATURDAY,JUNE 26Homefront |   |
|--------------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|---|
| 9:00 am                              | Event opens to the public  | 10:00 am                          | Holland Museum opensFocus gallery exhibition "Thank God for Michigan!" featuring locally-collected Civil War objects and photographs           |
| 10:00                                | Presentation by Major Perry Bennet, U.S. historian, on The Battle of Utoy CreekHolland Area Arts Council on-hand with kids' crafts.  |                                   | Holland Area Arts Council opensA Civil War era quilt exhibit, demonstrations on rug hooking, spinning, and weaving. Craft activities for kids! |
| 11:30                                | Special impression: Pres. Abraham Lincoln and Mary Todd Lincoln, "Who Would Jack Vote For?"The 1864 election campaign, with all its twists and turns, might make today's politicians blush.   | 3:00 pm                           | Holland Area Arts Council closes  |
| 1:30 pm                              | Form for public battle   | 5:00                              | Holland Museum closes   |
| 2:00                                 | Battle begins  |                                   |   |
| 3:00                                 | Battle endsPass in review  |                                   |   |
| 3:30                                 | Medical scenario   |                                   |   |
| 4:00                                 | Special impression: Pres. Abraham Lincoln and Mary Todd Lincoln, "Who Would Jack Vote For?"The 1864 election campaign, with all its twists and turns, might make today's politicians blush.   |                                   |   |
| 5:00                                 | Presentation area closes   |                                   |   |
| 7:00                                 | Civil War Ball   |                                   |   |
| 9:00                                 | Camp closes to public  |                                   |   |
| 9:30                                 | Last shuttle run   |                                   |   |
| SUNDAY, JUNE 27Van Raalte Farm   |  | SUNDAY,JUNE 27Homefront   |   |
| 9:00 am                              | Confederate DrillCamps open to publicSpecial impressions area open   | 12:00 pm                          | Holland Museum opensFocus gallery exhibition "Thank God for Michigan!" featuring locally-collected Civil War objects and photographs           |
| 10:00                                | Presentation by Major Perry Bennet, U.S. historian, on The Battle of Utoy Creek  |                                   |   |
| 11:00                                | Period-style church service  | 5:00                              | Holland Museum closes   |
| 12:00 pm                             | Special impression: Pres. Abraham Lincoln and Mary Todd Lincoln, "Why did he wait so long?"The journey of Lincoln's arrival at the Emancipation Proclamation and why he issued it when he did |                                   |   |
| 1:30                                 | Form for public battle   |                                   |   |
| 2:00                                 | Battle begins  |                                   |   |
| 3:00                                 | Battle endsPass in review  |                                   |   |
| 3:30                                 | Unit dismissal   |                                   |   |

EVENT GUIDELINES: NO pets • Cash-only wristband sales hollandmuseum.org

